United Services for Children Donor Privacy Policy

United Services for Children respects the privacy of its donors. USFC has made effective the following Donor Privacy Policy to honor and protect these rights:

- United Services for Children treats its donor list as a confidential document. USFC will never sell, trade or share its donor list with any other organization, nor will it send out mailings from other organizations to its donors or other mail recipients.
- United Services for Children only collects personal information which donors have voluntarily made public or communicated directly to us. Such information includes: donor's name, address, telephone number, email address, history of charitable giving to USFC, and volunteer activity/interests with USFC, if any. USFC will record other information only if the donor has expressly and voluntarily communicated this information to us. In such cases, this information remains strictly confidential.
- United Services for Children then keeps this information on file only for the following purposes: 1) USFC's own volunteer and development activities, 2) direct communication with donors, and 3) IRS purposes. USFC holds this information in a secure database with access restricted solely to a small number of authorized personnel.
- United Services for Children collects no information on visitors to its websites unless, as noted above, the visitor makes a secure online donation or ticket purchase. In such cases, the donor's name, email, phone and address may be collected only for USFC's own development purposes
- It is our desire not to send unwanted mail to our donors. Please contact USFC if you wish to be removed from our mailing list.
- Anyone wishing to review, change, or remove personal information collected by United Services for Children may call Landon Porter at 636-926-2700 or send an email to lporter@unitedsrvcs.org.
